PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

MOZILLA MESSAGING 2009 - present

Lead graphic and web designer working on the Raindrop Messaging Project. Tasks involve concept and layout development, CSS and HTML realization, and working with software developers and UX designers. Raindrop is an experimental messaging system that aims to make your inbox personal again. Raindrop is an open source project hosted by Mozilla Labs.

RETHINK COMMUNICATIONS 2009

Design intern working throughout the Summer of 2009. Tasks involve general layouts and concept development.

MACNEIL BIKE CO. 2008

Freelance work on a variety of projects including identity design, front end web design, video editing, and various print projects.

VOLEURZ APPAREL 2007 – present

Apparel design for Victoria/Whistler based snowboard company Voleurz. Tasks involve concept generation and illustration.

THE DESIGN COLLECTIVE 2005 – 2006

Intern at a small architecture firm in Vancouver BC. Roles included helping with general tasks and constructing simple small scale working models. Although no longer an employee I currently freelance for them as a web designer. NOTE: the company has since rebranded and go by the name Campos Leckie.
